What's New at the Library??

February 2014

Pushing the Limits Reading, Viewing and Discussion Series

The library will be hosting a free four part reading, viewing and discussion series for adults called Pushing the Limits. We are one of only 15 rural public libraries nationwide to receive a grant to host this program! Pushing the Limits brings together books and video featuring authors, scientists and everyday people who thrive on exploring the natural world. All participants will receive the featured book, free of charge. Group discussion events will be held once a month on the following topics and books:

Nature: T.C Boyle, When the Killing's Done
Connection: Erik Larson, Thunderstruck
Survival: Barbara Kingsolver, Flight Behavior
Knowledge: Bryan Sykes, The Seven Daughters of Eve

Dr. Charles Greenburg, member of the steering council of math and science for Allegheny County, will be leading the discussions. The first discussion will take place on February 27th at 6:00pm. To reserve your copy of the first book or to receive more details, please call or visit the library.
